

*Approved by the INDIGENOUS INCLUSION
DIRECTORATE

AVAILABLE ON
ahathèque

THE VOYAGE COLLECTION YOUTH NOVELS

Follow the adventures of four youth from St. Rita, a Métis community in Manitoba. The young protagonists journey in discovery of their inner and outer geography and history.

- Ages 11 to 17
- Available in print, audio and e-book

Janine Tougas brings to life deeply human issues and conveys complex concepts with creativity and compassion.

“By following the quest of Jaimie, Gabriel, Harry and Sara, I have come a long way in my own identity quest. This resource fills a great need in the Métis community ... and in our society in general.”

M. LaCoste

AVAILABLE IN FRENCH

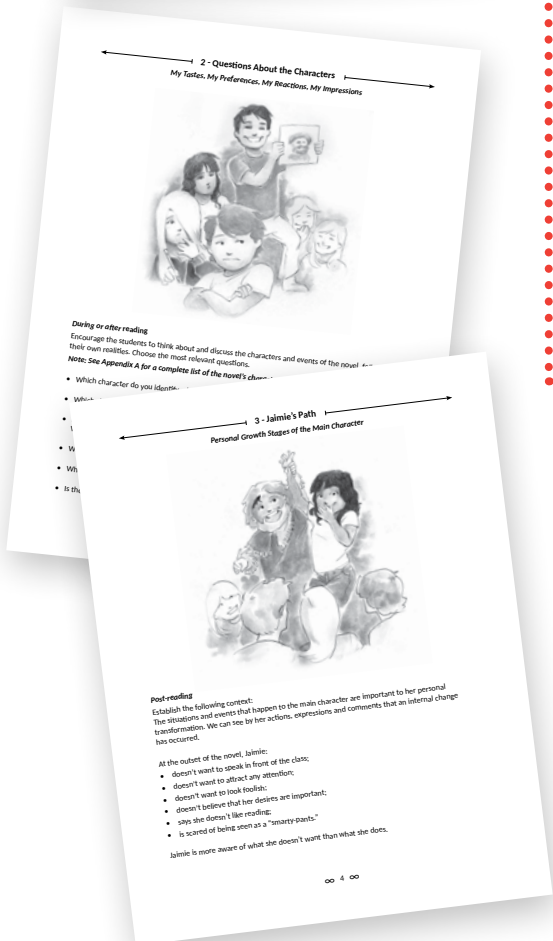

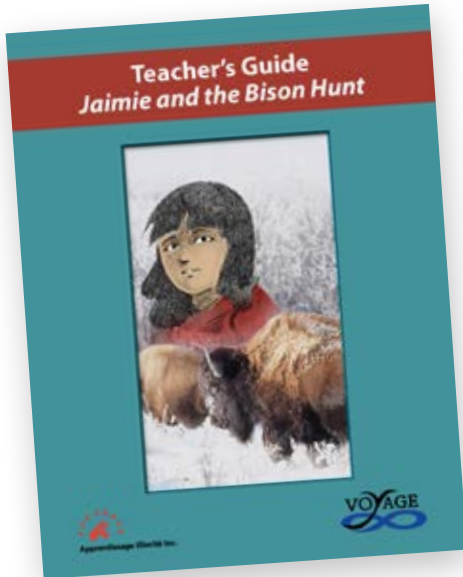

THE VOYAGE COLLECTION TEACHER'S GUIDES

Explore the novels with your students in the classroom.

Teacher's guides with multidisciplinary activities that educators can use to develop:

- oral, written and visual expression
- character and plot studies
- self-knowledge and self-esteem
- a sense of belonging
- individual and community identity
- an understanding and appreciation of First Nations, Métis and French-Canadian cultures and their contribution to the development of our country
- business sense
- reconciliation
- historical trauma and its impact

Available in print and electronic format